

FROM THE DESK OF DAVID BRADLEY
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
JULY 9, 2020

I am proud to have been a Republican representing Southeast Texas for 22 years as a state officeholder. I have had the honor of working with elected officials and candidates, year in and year out, and learned quickly who best serves the public and has the integrity to meet our needs going forward.

There's a stark contrast between Scott Golemon's expertise in trying over 300 civil jury trials while his opponent's experience is much more limited. Additionally, Scott has handled over 50 appeals in ten of the 14 different Courts of Appeals across the state of Texas and in the Texas Supreme Court.
EXPERIENCE DOES MATTER.

I look at Scott's list of endorsing organizations and I recognize many as having supported and endorsed me when I ran for office all those years. I look at his family and the things he found worthwhile to teach his children, and I applaud him.

Above all, Scott Golemon has vowed to follow and enforce our laws and NOT legislate from the bench!

I hereby endorse SCOTT GOLEMON because he is the candidate we need as Texas' Chief Justice of the 9th Court of Appeals.

Sincerely,
